Sangrur, Sep 5, 2017

"Teachers should be the best minds in the country"

Teacher's Day is a very important day for every students as they get to thank their mentors students for all the hard work they put into shapes their personality. A special assembly was conducted by the students of grade 10 to make their teachers feel good and special. The assembly started with the morning prayer followed by speech, role play, song and dance. The assembly got over with the National Anthem. Indeed it was a special start to be delightful day!

Dussehra and Gandhi Jayanti

Sangrur, September 28, 2017

DPS Sangrur celebrated Gandhi Jayanti and Dussehra with enthusiasm and fervour. The special assembly began with tribute paid to father of the nation 'Mahatma Gandhi' followed by Gandhi's favourite bhajan 'Raghupati Raghav Raja Ram'. To celebrate the victory of good over evil Dussehra was also celebrated. Students presented speech, poem, role play, dance to inspire all to follow the path of truth. The assembly got over with National Anthem.

by wonderful thought. The students enlightened us about various techniques of Guru Nanak Dev Ji. A sense of peace and tranquillity filled the air as the school celebrated Gurburab.

“WORKSHOPS IN SCHOOL

“Good teachers become great teachers by going beyond the call of duty and beyond the textbook. To do this, he or she must continue their education. There are conferences, workshops and continuing education that could give the teacher that extra help in technology for their students.”

The teacher training workshops were organized in the school by Oxford University Press for the teachers of all the subjects to make them familiar with the various activities associated with the child’s development.

The Karadi Path Education Company conducted a workshop to introduce the teachers to the Karadi Path methodology and the programmes they offer.

Ms. Harshita Saxena, Jolly phonics expert, conducted a 2-day interactive session with the teachers to intimate them about the new methodology. The problems faced by the children in reading and learning sounds were also discussed.

KINDERGARTEN Spell Bee Competition

“Spelling is important because it aids in reading. It helps cement the connection that is shared between sounds and letters.”

A Spell Bee Competition was organized in September. This competition was one out of the numerous enjoyable competitions that give students a platform to learn spellings in different ways.

Various other activities such as solo singing competition, role play, quiz competition, reading competition, were organized to encourage the little ones.

POETRY RECITATION

“Poetry is when an emotion has found its thought and the thought has found words.”

It is the one place where people can speak their original human mind. It is the outlet for people to say in public what is known in private. It is a complex perfection, associable with nothing less complex than truth.

Various inter-house competitions were held in DPSS in this regard.

English poetry recitation Senior division was held on September 8'17.
