SEMINARS AND WORKSHOPS

WORKSHOP ON 'KARADI PATH'

Learning a new language is never easy, but a startup at DPS SANGRUR with the belief that if the right methods are employed, then it can be child's play. Rather than the usual text book lessons, 'Karadi Path' relies on visuals and musicals to make non-native speakers pick up the language that is often the key to a better life. Just like a child learns the mother tongue from family members with the help of their tones, gesture, body language and so on, Karadi Path has created audio/video books where music and background score are used to create the natural stimuli to teach English.

A workshop was organized in the school to train the teachers about this new and innovative methodology.

CAREER COUNSELLING WORKSHOP

A workshop on Career Counseling was organized in our school.
